THE TEN LOVES OF NISHINO NOVEL BY HIROMI KAWAKAMI

The story consists of ten chapters, spanning Yukihiro Nishino's life from his teenage years to his death. In each chapter, a different narrator talks about their relationship with Yukihiro Nishino. Nishino is a good-looking, kind, sensitive and romantic man, and all ten women cannot help themselves fall for him. From beginning to end, the tone of voice is relaxed and mellow, yet I couldn't stop reading because each woman exhibits a very unique and striking character in her own way. They are all talking about their memories of the same man, but for some reason, you will find him different in every relationship. You will see how he tried to love each woman, but wonder whether he really loved anyone. Was he ever happy himself? Those are the questions you will ask yourself after reading this "humorous, sensual, and touching novel."
