in Japanese-Language Education
(Special Program in response to COVID-19)
Application Instructions

1. Overview

This program is intended to provide urgent support for various kinds of new activities in response to COVID-19, such as preparation and training for online lessons/events/teaching materials, implemented by overseas organizations involved in Japanese-language education in Canada.

2. Eligible Areas

Canada

3. Requirements of the Proposed Projects

- (1) The Japan Foundation will accept applications for projects that would be initiated during April 1, 2021 (and 1 month later from the applications) – March 31, 2022.
- (2) The Japan Foundation will accept applications for projects that fulfill the following requirements:
  - a. Programs should be mainly online and do not require people to leave their homes.
  - b. The plan and method of implementation must be appropriate and there must be ample expectations that programs will yield good results.
  - c. Programs must not be used for religious or political purposes.
  - d. Programs must not be conducted as commercial activities.

4. Eligibility

- (1) Applicants are only accepted from Canadian non-profit organizations involved in Japanese-language education (including Japanese-language teachers' associations and academic societies); individuals are not eligible to apply. Organizations whose national laws restrict them from receiving aid from foreign organizations affiliated with governments are not eligible.
- (2) In principle, the Japan Foundation does not provide grants for:
  - a. Governmental organizations, including their administrative organs such as ministries, embassies and consulates (excluding academic, cultural, or research institutes such as universities and museums)
  - b. International organizations to which the Japanese government makes a financial contribution.
- (3) Receipt of grants or benefits from the Japan Foundation must not violate any laws and ordinances, etc. (Please confirm this before applying.)
- (4) Applying institutions must be capable of accepting grants (cheque) from the Japan Foundation.
- (5) Applicants must have the capabilities necessary for implementing their planned projects as well as for preparing and submitting the required documents before the deadlines.

5. Program Description

(1) Outline

This program is intended to provide urgent support for various kinds of new activities in response to COVID-19, such as preparation and training for online lessons/events/teaching materials, implemented by overseas organizations involved in Japanese-language education. Examples of programs eligible for this support are given below.

Items	Description
Online lessons (Types of fees eligible for grants)	Fees for which Japanese-language teachers take training designed for online lessons. Honorariums for Japanese-language teachers or technical advisors to implement online lessons. Outsourcing expenses for agents or advisors to improve websites for online lessons.
Online events (Types of fees eligible for grants)	Costs for holding programs such as online speech, presentation, and debate contests that are intended to motivate students and increase interest in Japanese-language education in the country or region. Honorariums for Japanese-language teachers or technical advisors to implement online events. Outsourcing expenses for agents or advisors to improve websites for online events.
Salary assistance for Japanese-language teachers or staff	A part of the salaries given to Japanese-language teachers teaching Japanese-language online courses and to the staff carrying out activities to enhance the network of Japanese-language institutions in the applicant's region/country, until the end of March 2022.
Teaching material purchase (Types of fees eligible for grants)	A part of the cost of purchasing teaching materials (including e-books), supplementary materials, and educational materials needed by Japanese-language teachers when conducting Japanese-language online courses. Materials that are to be given to students are not eligible for this grant.
Online seminars (Types of fees eligible for grants)	A part of the costs involved in holding online seminars, workshops, symposiums, and training sessions and meetings for Japanese-language teachers.
Online teaching material publication (Types of fees eligible for grants)	A part of the costs involved in preparing and publishing teaching materials consistent with the local needs in the applicant's region/country.

- ※ Applying organizations and groups may apply for a combination of programs that meet their needs, depending on their activities.
- ※ This grant is to provide urgent support for various kinds of new online activities in response to COVID-19. Please refer to the list of programs covered by our Local Grant Program at https://jftor.org/language/jl\_grants/#localgrant before applying to this grant.
